FOREVER URNS®

After the cremation, you will receive your loved one's ashes in a temporary container. The remains can be buried, interred or scattered, but for many of us, keeping a loved one at home can be comforting. Alternatively, you might want to share the ashes, and for this, small keepsakes and jewellery mean you can always keep them close.

The following brochure is a guide for the options available to you.

INTERMENT

People often choose to bury the ashes of a loved one in a cemetery or natural burial ground. Forever Urns offer a variety of urns designed by various specialists from around the world using natural materials such as plant fibre, paper, bamboo, seagrass, wood, clay and wool.

MEMORIAL

Our stone urns are beautiful garden pieces that seamlessly blend into their surroundings as well as options like flowers and saplings that can be planted in memory of a loved one.
